

Contents

Introduction	11
Acknowledgement	14
Primary sources and translations	16
Chinese sources	16
Greek sources	24
Latin sources	25
Iranian sources	26
A) In Bactrian language	26
B) In Middle Persian, Pahlavi and Greek languages	26
Armenian source	27
Arabic source	27
Syriac source	28
Sanskrit sources	28
Tibetan source	28
Babylonian source	29
The texts	30
Possible prehistory of the Yuezhi
001 – Yuzhi: Traders in jade	30
002 – Years around 350 BC: The original home of the Yuzhi in Ningxia province	32
003 – Years 246-221 BC: Wuzhi as traders in horses	33
004 – Years as before: The Yuezhi in Gansu / Hexi corridor	33
005 – Similar physique of Yuezhi and Wusun	34
006 – Terminology shared between Wusun and Yuezhi: yabghu	35
007 – Original and modified way of life of the Yuezhi	36
008 – Years 259-210 BC: Emperor Qin ruling, the Yuezhi prosper	36
The three attacks of the Xiongnu on the Yuezhi
009 – Years prior to 209 BC: The stratagem of the Xiongnu leader Touman	37
010 – Years as before: First attack on the Yuezhi by the Xiongnu under Touman	37

- 011 – Year 209 BC and shortly afterwards: Modu succeeds Touman and attacks regions held by Han 38
- 012 – Year ca. 208/7 BC or shortly later: Second attack on the Yuezhi by the Xiongnu under Modu and the expulsion from Gansu 38
- 013 – Year ca. 208/7 BC or later: The Wusun become a branch of the Xiongnu - the SJ version 40
- 014 – Year ca. 208/7 BC or earlier: The Wusun become a branch of the Xiongnu - the HS version 40
- 015 – Year after 208/7 BC: The Wusun become militarily active 41
- 016 – Year 206 BC: The Large (group of) Yuezhi flee to an intermediate home in the West 42
- 017 – Year 206 BC: The Smaller (group of) Yuezhi flee to the southern mountains 42
- 018 – Years after 206 BC: The intermediate habitat was first inhabited by the Sai (Śaka), then by the Yuezhi, finally by the Wusun 44
- 019 – Years after 206 BC: The Yuezhi make the Sai (Śaka) move south across the mountains 45
- 020 – Years after ca. 206 BC: The locations of the Sai (Śaka) and the end of the Graeco-Bactrian kingdom 46
- 021 – The Xiongnu realm with the Yuezhi in the West 48
- 022 – Can Ptolemy be used to define the intermediate home? 48
- 023 – Year 176 BC: Third attack on the Yuezhi – Modu reports about a devastating attack by the Xiongnu under the Wise King of the Right 51
- 024 – Years before 174 BC: Attacks 2 and 3 on the Yuezhi by the Xiongnu - in a nutshell 53
- 025 – Year 174 BC: The secret departure of the Wusun from the Xiongnu to an undefined location – the SJ version 54
- 026 – Year ca. 174 BC: The Wusun chase the Yuezhi out of their intermediate home – the HS version 55
- 027 – The Yuezhi are dispelled by the Xiongnu, not by the Wusun 56
- 028 – Years 176 BC ff.: After the third attack the Yuezhi are managed by the son or the wife of the beheaded king 57
- 029 – Year 166 BC: Xiongnu attacks on Han China 58
- 030 – Years around 235-225 BC and later: Justin = Pompeius Trogus abbreviated, on the inroads of Scythians into Bactria and Sogdiana 58
- 031 – Year ca. 145 BC: Northern tribes wrest Bactria from the Greeks 59
- 032 – Years 140-135 BC: Progress in the exploration of the Western Regions by the Han Emperor 61
- 033 – Year 123 BC: Fight between the Parthian Artabanus I with Scythians and the “Thogarii” 61
- 034 – Year 119 BC: The Parthians take revenge for Artabanus I by attacking the Guti 61

035 – Years before 121 BC: From South-West China to Bactria via India prior to the mission of Zhang Qian	62
036 – Year 121 BC: Han ambassador Zhang Qian describes the Yuezhi land in northern Bactria	63
037 – Year as before: Han ambassador Zhang Qian describes Daxia as different from Yuezhi and without king	64
038 – Year as before: For Zhang Qian the court of the Yuezhi was not in Bactria	66
039 – Year 129 BC or earlier: The Yuezhi rule southern Bactria	67
040 – Further contact with Chinese envoys	67
041 – Year ca. 109 BC: Connections with the West firmly established	68
042 – Year 105 BC: Han tries to put a wedge between the Western countries and the Xiongnu	68
043 – Years 87 BC ff.: The Large (group of) Yuezhi have a king?	68

The phase of the Yabghus

044 – Year ca. 80 BC [date = speculation ed.]: The installation of the five Yabghus	69
045 – The various xihou through the centuries	70
046 – The relation between xihou and yuezhi	74
047 – Comments on the Kabul area	74
048 – Local distribution of Yabghus according to F. Grenet (Journal Asiatique 2006)	75
049 – Years after 49 BC: The fate of the skull-cup	78
050 – Year between 48 and 33 BC: End of the Jibin interlude with the son of Wutulao and the usurper Yinmofu installed by Han	78
051 – Years around 20 BC: Justin = Pompeius Trogus abbreviated, on the advent of the Tocharians and the end of the Sakarauka	81
052 – Year ca. 18/17 BC: Ambassadors from India visit Augustus during his four years in the East	81
053 – Year 2 BC: King of the Yuezhi sends a Buddhist messenger to the Chinese court	82
054 – The prosperity of Bactria under the united Kushans	83

Events in the time of Kujūla Kadphises

055 – Years AD ±75-±89: Dates for the “Kuṣāṇa”, assumed to be Kujula, in inscriptions: Azes era 122-136	85
056 – Year ca. AD ±30: Kujula does away with four co-Yabghus	85
057 – The “Heraios/Heraus” coinage	85
058 – Year after AD ±30: Kujula takes Kabul, Nangarhar and Gandhara	88
059 – Year ca. AD 42-48: The Parthian Vardanes I campaigns against the Kushans in western Bactria	88
060 – Year ca. AD ±50: Apracarāja Aśpavarma	89
061 – Year ca. AD 60 and later: Description of the Yuezhi country within the circle of neighbours	90

062 – Years ca. AD 70: Kushans in the Periplus ?	92
063 – Years as before: Silk from China in the Periplus	93
064 – Year ca. AD 70: Sadaṣkaṇa, son of Kujula	93
065 – Year AD ±75 = year 122 of Azes: Kujula nameless as guṣaṇa	94
066 – Year AD 78: The Yuezhi seek good relations with the Chinese	94
067 – Year AD ±79 = year 126 of Azes: Kujula nameless as yabghu	95
068 – Year AD 84: Ban Chao attacks Yarkand and the role of the Yuezhi	95
069 – Year AD 87: Ban Chao, Yarkand and the Yuezhi again	96
070 – Year AD 88: Ban Chao blocks a marriage proposal and provokes enmity between Yuezhi and Han	96
071 – Year AD ±89 = year 136 of Azes: Kujula nameless, sick (?), as khuṣaṇa	97
072 – Year AD ±89 or ±90: Kujula dies	97

Events in the time of Vema Takhtu alias Sōtēr megas

073 – Years and titles for Vema Takhtu: AD 90-104	97
074 – Year AD 90: Kushan king/viceroy attacks Ban Chao west of Kucha and is beaten back	97
075 – Who is 謝: Read /xie/ or /tak/?	100
076 – Year AD 91: Ban Chao becomes governor in Kucha	100
077 – Year after AD ±90 and before AD ±112: Vema Takhtu succeeds Kujula	100
078 – Vema Takhtu issues Sōtēr megas coinage	101
079 – Year ca. AD 90: An unknown relative or a Mahākṣatrapa as governor?	102
080 – Year AD 97: Expedition/embassy sent by Ban Chao to Rome	102
081 – Years AD 89-105: Embassies from Kushan India to the Chinese Court	103
082 – Year AD 100: Ban Chao considers returning home	103
083 – Year before AD 102: Condition of the Yuezhi	104
084 – How to reach countries held by the Kushans, starting at the Jade Gate	104
085 – Year ca. AD 102: Concerning India	105
086 – Indian commerce with Rome	106
087 – Year AD 102: Ban Chao returns home and dies	107
088 – Year ca. ±104 at Māt: Vema takṣu , son of a nameless kuṣāṇa	107
089 – Year AD ±104 = Yavana era 279: Vema Takhtu	108
090 – Year AD ±104: King Vema Kuśa = Vema Takhtu	108

Events in the time of Vima Kadphises

091 – Year AD ±112: Date for Vima Kadphises in inscriptions: Yavana year 287	109
092 – Kushan kings not named on graffiti of the Indus-Hunza road to China	109
093 – Year AD 114-120: Yuezhi king interferes successfully with dynastic problems in Kashgar	110

Events in the time of Kaniṣka I

094 – Year AD ±129-±150: Dates for Kaniṣka I in inscriptions: 2-23	111
--	-----

095 – Year AD ±127: Year 1 of a Kuṣāṇa century	111
096 – Year AD ±128: Rabatak - Dynastic succession and conquests documented	112
097 – Year AD ±129: Kaniṣka sends ambassadors to Hadrian	115
098 – Years between AD ±127 and ±136: Kaniṣka attacks western Xinjiang	115
099 – Year AD 130: Kaniṣka invades Sāketa	115
100 – Conquest of eastern India through caṇḍa Kaniṣka	117
101 – Kaniṣka attacks the Parthians	117
102 – Year ca. AD 150: The end of Kaniṣka	117
103 – Year ca. AD 150: Can Ptolemy be used to link the tocharoi from the East with Tocharistan?	118
104 – The Tocharians subject to the Bactrians?	120

Events in the time of Huviṣka

105 – Year AD ±153-±187: Dates for Huviṣka in inscriptions: 26 to 60	120
106 – Year AD ±155 ≈ Kushan year 28: Huviṣka in trouble?	121
107 – Year AD ±158 ≈ Kushan year 31: Well-inscription at Surkh-Kotal (SK4)	122
108 – Years AD 159 and 161: Ambassadors to the Chinese court	122
109 – Kaniṣka son of Huviṣka?	123

Events in the time of Vāsudeva

110 – Years AD ±191-±225: Dates for Vāsudeva in inscriptions: 68 to 98	123
111 – Year ca. AD 222: Bardaiṣan on Kushan habits	123
112 – Years AD 222-252: Embassy from Cambodia receives Yuezhi horses from Muruṇḍas in eastern North India	124
113 – Years as before: Kushan horse trade by ship	125
114 – Year ca. AD 224: Kushan envoys to Ardashir	125
115 – Year AD 230: Embassy of Vāsudeva reaches the Chinese capital	126
116 – Years AD 220-265: Yuezhi and other nations send tribute to China	126

The time of Kaniṣka II

117 – Years AD ±231-±245: Dates for Kaniṣka II in inscriptions: 4 to 18	126
---	-----

Events in the time of Vaskuṣāṇa I

118 – Year AD ±249: Date for Vaskuṣāṇa in inscription: 22	127
119 – Year AD 249: Vehsachan wants to help Khosrow against Ardashir I	128

The time of Vasiṣka

120 – Years AD ±251-±257: Dates for Vasiṣka in inscriptions: 24 to 30	129
---	-----

The time of Kaniṣka III

121 – Years AD ±257-±268: Dates for Kaniṣka III in inscriptions: 30 to 41	129
122 – Year ca. AD 250: The extent of the Kushan realm and its neighbours	130
123 – Year ca. AD 250: Description of Yuezhi country and people	131

