

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
1 Feeling, knowing, interpreting	1
On Tibetan lives and objects Tsering Yangzom
2 Introduction	13
Materials, materiality and material culture Trine Brox, Emma Martin and Diana Lange
3 Ritualized meshworks in landscape and pharmacy	41
Harvest and production alongside amchi from Spiti and Kinnaur Mridul Surbhi and Jan M. A. van der Valk
4 Miraculous display	65
Temporal and collaborative materializations in Tibetan Buddhist butter art Mark Stevenson
5 The afterlives of Tibetan Buddhist material objects	93
Trine Brox
6 What makes ‘Tibetan paper’ Tibetan?	113
Understanding the materiality of Tibetan paper Agnieszka Helman-Ważny
7 Materials and materiality as keys to understanding a map of Mount Kailash	147
Diana Lange and Oliver Hahn

8 Recovering Barmiok Lama, Tibetan material knowledge and a Himalayan ‘scene of collecting’	177
Emma Martin
9 Menjor tools and the artisanal epistemology of making Sowa Rigpa medicines in Spiti	207
Stuti Singh and Barbara Gerke
10 Communicating Visual Literacy through Drawing	239
Illustrations of National Dress, Buddhist Monastic and Ritual Attire in Bhutan
Mareike Wulff
11 Materializing Buddhist care through conservation at a Sikkim museum	265
Katia Thomas
12 The material poetics and politics of the patag	291
Bhutan’s ceremonial sword as a heroic artefact
Dendup Chopel
13 Loga’s gau in Dreaming Lhasa	323
Film objects as narrative devices in contemporary Tibetan cinema
Gokul KS and Sonika Gupta
14 Postscript	345
Weaving Materials into Tibetan and Himalayan Studies
Barbara Gerke
15 Critical Tibetan Studies	355
A Turn to Materiality
Emma Martin, Trine Brox and Diana Lange	