Chairmen and vice-chairmen of autonomous regional governments are equivalent to governors and vice-governors of provinces and to mayors and vice-mayors of Beijing, Chongqing, Shanghai and Tianjin. Year and month behind a name indicate the date the person assumed the post or was identified in this position.

The National Group for Coordinating the Work of Rectifying the Order of Internet Cafes and Other Internet Access Providing Businesses (quanguo wangba deng huliang wangshang wang fuwu yingye changsuo zhuanxiang zhengzhi gongzuo ziediao xiaozu) held a plenary meeting in Beijing on 18 May. State Councillor Chen Zhili attended and addressed the meeting. (Xinhua, 18 May 04, in BBC PF, 16 June 04; RMRB, 19 May 04)

A new committee was established on 21 June to ensure safety in power production across the country. The State Electricity Regulatory Commission (SERC), two major power grid corporations and some power companies are members of the newly-established Committee for National Power Production Safety (quanguo dianli anquan shengchan weiyuanhui), according to the committee's first meeting held in Beijing on 21 June. The establishment of the committee is a substantial measure to enhance the supervision and management on power production safety, said SERC Chairman Chai Songyue. To ease the severe power shortage in the country, China has accelerated its pace in grid construction and made all power enterprises generate electricity at full speed. According to a recent executive meeting of the State Council, or the Chinese cabinet, ensuring safety and security of energy production is one of several essential measures taken by the government to ease energy shortage in the summer. Death

Hong Kong

Hong Kong Chief Executive Tung Chee-hwa announced on 7 July that he has accepted the resign of Hong Kong Secretary for Health, Welfare and Food Yeoh Eng-kiung. Tung made the remarks at a press conference on 7 July in response to the report of the Legislative Council's Selective Committee to inquire into the handling of the severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS). Tung said Yeoh will remain at his post for another three months before the appointment of a new Secretary for Health, Welfare and Food. Tung praised Yeoh for his all-out efforts in Hong Kong's anti-SARS campaign last year and his efforts for prevention of avian flu in Hong Kong. Tung praised Yeoh for his selfless devotion for Hong Kong, expressing his thanks to Yeoh on behalf of Hong Kong citizens. Tung also expressed condolence for the SARS victims in Hong Kong. Yeoh said at the press conference that he felt great pleasure to serve Hong Kong residents in the past 33 years. Yeoh took up the current post in 1 July, 2002. (XNA, 7 July 04)

Argentina (June 28)

President Hu Jintao and visiting President Nestor Kirchner attended the signing ceremony of five documents between the governments of the two countries. The documents are about bilateral cooperation in such areas as civil aviation, public health, culture, investment and agriculture. (XNA, 28 June 04; RMRB, 29 June 04)

Benin (June 25)

China and Benin signed five accords on economic and technological cooperation in the Beninese capital Cotonou. The accords include an agreement on economic and technological cooperation between the two countries, a framework agreement on providing preferential loans by China to Benin, and an agreement on cooperation between the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Benin. The signing ceremony was held after the talks between visiting Chinese Vice-President Zeng Qinghong and Benin President Mathieu Ahmad Kerekou, both present at the ceremony. (XNA, 26 June 04; RMRB, 27 June 04)

Ethiopia, Mauritius (June 25)

China signed the Memorandum of Understanding [MOU] on tourism with Ethiopia and Mauritius respectively in Beijing. China has already signed similar MOU with five African nations, including Kenya, Seychelles, Tanzania, Zimbabwe and Tunisia. Tourism insiders acknowledged that the signing of Sino-African tourism MOU is of vital importance to the enhancement of the traditional friendship between China and Africa, the two way flows of tourists as well as the promotion of bilateral understanding. Ethiopia is prestigious for the vast East African Rift Valley, and Ethiopian Airlines is the first African air routes to open direct flights from China. Lying in the South Indian Ocean, Mauritius lists tourism as one of its three pillar industries. (XNA, 25 June 04)

France (June 11)

China and France signed nine documents on economic cooperation in Paris. China agreed to buy 20 Airbus planes and a French satellite in two contracts signed in French Prime Minister Jean-Pierre Raffarin's Matignon Palace. At the signing ceremony, seven other technical cooperation agreements were also inked, with the presence of Raffarin and visiting Chinese Vice-Premier Zeng Peiyan after their talks. The deals for 20 Airbus A330-200 planes and the French-made Alcatel television satellite are valued at more than 2bn US$, according to industrial sources. The 20 Airbus jumbo jets are scheduled to be delivered to China from the first quarter of 2006. Pascale Sourisse, president of Alcatel Space, a subsidiary of the French telecommunications group Alcatel, said his company had agreed to sell a satellite to Chinasat, a Chinese satellite operator preparing for the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing. The Electricity of France signed with a Chinese company a letter of intent concerning technical cooperation in building a nuclear power plant in Southern China's Guangdong Province. Other deals signed in the ceremony included a technology transfer programme of high-speed electric trains between French engineering group Alstom and China's Datong Electric Locomotive Company. (RMRB, XNA, 12 June 04)

Hungary (June 10)

China and Hungary signed six cooperation documents in Budapest to strengthen their economic ties and to boost bilateral trade. Chinese President Hu Jintao and his Hungarian counterpart Ferenc Madl witnessed the signing of the documents on education, culture, the opening of new air routes between Beijing and Budapest and on the sales of bus parts produced in Hungary. China and Hungary will jointly open a bilingual school in Budapest, teaching both Chinese and Hungarian, according to an agreement signed by ministries of education of both countries. Another agreement, signed by the China Hainan Airlines and the Hungary airlines, has set that from 2 August, the China Hainan Airlines will fly three flights each week between Beijing and Budapest. Hu and Madl signed a joint statement themselves after they held an hour-long talks, saying both nations will establish a relationship of "friendly and cooperative partnership". ... (RMRB, XNA, 11 June 04)

Italy (June 08)

Wang Jingchuan, director of China's State Intellectual Property Office (SIPO), and Antonio Marzano, minister of production activities of Italy, signed in Beijing an agreement of cooperation on intellectual property. The inter-governmental agreement is expected to promote exchange and cooperation between the two countries in trade and economic, scientific and technological and cultural fields. The two sides agreed to exchange information on intellectual property laws and industrial patents. The two sides also agreed to further discuss procedure standardization of patent application examination. In addition, the two sides will exchange information on the implementation of multilateral conventions related to intellectual property as well as efforts to deal with intellectual property infringement in their respective countries. As they expand their trade and economic relations, Wang said, China and Italy need to cooperate with each other in intellectual property protection. Wang said he hopes the two sides will carry out deeper and more extensive exchange and cooperation in intellectual property. Since the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries on 6 November, 1970, China and Italy have signed many cooperative agreements in order to solidify trade and economic relations. In 2003, the two countries witnessed a record high bilateral trade volume of 11.73bn US$. From January to April 2004, the bilateral trade volume reached 4.54bn US$, 22 per cent more than that in the same period last year. Italy has become China's fifth largest trade partner among European nations. (XNA, 8 June 04)

Mongolia (June 18)

Chinese Deputy Health Minister She Jing and her Mongolian counterpart Natsagiyn Udval signed an agreement in Ulaanbaatar to reinforce cooperation on health. The agreement aimed to boost exchanges of medical information, medical experts and mutual visits to each other's health facilities between the two countries in the 2004-2008 period. (XNA, 18 June 04)

Poland (June 08)

China and Poland signed a joint declaration pledging to work for a "friendly and cooperative partnership" between the two countries. The declaration, signed by visiting Chinese President Hu Jintao and Polish President Aleksander Kwasniewski, said the two countries will actively participate in efforts to build a relationship of all-around strategic partnership between China and the European Union. The "12-point" declaration emphasized the need to further strengthen historical friendship between the two countries, enhance mutual understanding and trust, and deepen mutually beneficial cooperation. ... Chinese President Hu arrived in Poland on 8 June for a two-day state visit, the first-ever state visit to the country by a Chinese president since the two countries established diplomatic relations in October 1949. Also on 8 June, the two countries signed a number of agreements, notably on bilateral cooperation in copper development and purchasing. Trade between China and Poland hit a record 1.98bn US$ last year, up 43.1 per cent from a year earlier, making Poland China's second largest trading partner in Central and Eastern Europe after Hungary. (RMRB, XNA, 9 June 04)

Romania (June 13)

Visiting Chinese President Hu Jintao

and Romanian President Ion Iliescu witnessed the signing of four bilateral documents that will expand their cooperation in culture, tourism, economic cooperation and overall relations. (RMRB, XNA, 14 June 04)

Singapore (June 09)

Two agreements signed on tourism and education will broaden bilateral cooperation, building on the network of relationships already entrenched by the SIP [Suzhou Industrial Park] project, as officials look for new areas to replicate the win-win formula of the SIP. That its 10th year of operations marked just the beginning of further cooperation, was a point also made by Senior Minister Lee Kuan Yew when he met Vice-Premier Wu Yi. As he recalled, he had chosen Suzhou as the site for the Singapore-style township because of its proximity to Shanghai and the fast-growing Yangtze River delta area. It also had an abundance of talented people. Jiangsu, the province which includes Suzhou, has a tradition of producing many zhuang yuan, the scholars who topped the imperial examinations. Mr. Lee did not dwell on congratulatory platitudes, but had this message: What SIP has done is only the beginning. And it will one day surpass Singapore. (ST, 10 Jun 04)

Switzerland (June 15)

Swiss President Joseph Deiss met with visiting Chinese Vice-Premier Zeng Peiyan in Bern, during which the two sides exchanged views and signed cooperation agreements on trade and tourism. Deiss mentioned the good political relationship and closer economic and trade ties between the two countries, and said Switzerland attaches great importance to developing cooperation in various areas with China. Switzerland is willing to provide China with experiences in finance, environment and agriculture to support Swiss enterprises' investment in China, and welcomes Chinese firms to invest here, he said. Zeng Peiyan, who is on a four-day visit to Switzerland, said the two sides have great potential for cooperation and China would like to see further development in Sino-Swiss economic and trade ties. Zeng invited Swiss enterprises to take an active part in development of Western China and in reconstruction projects of the old industrial base in Northeastern China.

Following talks, the two senior officials attended a signature ceremony of a memo on tourism. Deiss said the memo, along with other economic and trade cooperation agreements, has led bilateral ties to a new phase. (XNA, 16 June 04; RMRB, 17 June 04)

Togo (June 24)

China and Togo signed in Kara a number of eco-tech cooperation agreements after talks between visiting Chinese Vice-President Zeng Qinghong and Togolese President Gnassingbe Eyadema. The agreements include one on the establishment of a joint economic, trade and technological cooperation commission between the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Togo, two eco-tech cooperation accords concerning providing assistance gratis and interest-free loans by the Chinese government to the Togolese government for funding projects agreed upon by the two governments, and a framework agreement on providing preferential loans by China to Togo for realization of the Adjarala hydroelectric project. The Chinese vice-president, who was present at the signing ceremony, said the economic assistance provided by China to Togo has no political conditions attached, which embodies the spirit of sincere cooperation among developing countries. Cooperation between China and Togo on the basis of equality, mutual benefit and common development is fruitful, he said, adding that China is happy to see that the achievements in cooperation have played an important role in Togo's social-economic development. (RMRB, XNA, 25 June 04)

Tunisia (June 21)

China and Tunisia signed eight cooperation accords in Tunis after the talks between visiting Chinese Vice-President Zeng Qinghong and Tunisian Prime Minister Mohamed Ghannouchi. The accords signed include three economic agreements between the government of the People's Republic of China and the government of the Republic of Tunisia, and two agreements concerning bilateral trade and reciprocal encouragement and protection of investments. Other accords include agreement in education and research cooperation. The Education Ministry of China and the Ministry of Higher Education, Scientific Research and Technology of Tunisia signed cooperation agreement in the fields of higher education and science and technology research. China is also including Tunisia as a destination country its citizens can travel to. The National Tourism Administration of China and the Tunisian Tourism National Board signed a Memorandum of Understanding on the implementation plan for organized group travel by Chinese citizens to Tunisia. The two sides also signed a protocol regarding sending medical teams by China to Tunisia. The Chinese vice-president and the Tunisian prime minister were present at the signing ceremony. The signing of the agreements gives an impetus to mutually beneficial cooperation between the two countries, which signed the first trade agreement in 1958 before the two established diplomatic relations in 1964. (XNA, 21 June 04; RMRB, 22 June 04)

Uzbekistan (June 15)

Uzbek and Chinese officials signed a number of agreements in Tashkent on 15 June to further boost bilateral ties between the two countries, Uzbek TV reported on 16 June. "The following agreements were signed: an agreement between the Uzbekneftegaz [Uzbek oil and gas] national holding company and China National Petroleum Corporation on boosting mutually-beneficial oil and gas cooperation; an agreement between the Uzbek Ministry of Higher and Secondary Specialized Education and the Chinese Education Ministry on cooperation in setting up Confucius Institute in Tashkent; a cooperation agreement between Uzbek and Chinese justice ministries; a cultural exchange programme between Uzbek and Chinese culture ministries for 2004-2007; a memorandum between the Uzbek and Chinese governments on boosting trade, economic, investment and financial cooperation; an agreement between the Uzbek and Chinese governments on a soft loan being allocated by China to Uzbekistan; an agreement between the Uzbek and Chinese governments on China allocating an interest-free credit to Uzbekistan; a technical and economic cooperation agreement between the Chinese and Uzbek governments; an agreement on cooperation in fighting against trafficking in drugs and psychotropic substances and against their abuse; and an Uzbek-Chinese joint declaration on further boosting and strengthening partnership, friendship and cooperation," the TV said. (Uzbek Television second channel, 16 June 04, in BBC PF, 17 June 04)

China and Uzbekistan signed cooperation deals. Uzbek President Islam [Islam] Karimov and Chinese President Hu Jintao signed a joint declaration on further developing and boosting partnership, friendship and cooperation between the two countries. The Chinese president is on a five-day state visit in Tashkent. A package of 10 agreements and accords was signed on the results of the talks, including an intergovernmental agreement on cooperation in the fight against trafficking in drugs and psychotropic substances. A technical and economic cooperation agreement provides for no-strings aid worth 2.4m US$ to be allocated to Uzbekistan. China will also allocate a 10-year interest-free loan to the total tune of 50m RMBY (6m US$) for five-year projects to be implemented as part of bilateral relations. A credit worth 300m RMBY (36.5m US$) at an annual interest rate of 2 per cent will be allocated for a period of 20 years. The sides also agreed on cultural cooperation by 2007 as part of which Days of Uzbek Culture will be held in China in 2005. ... (ITAR-TASS news agency, 15 June 04, in BBC PF, 16 June 04)

China and Uzbekistan signed a joint statement and 10 other documents in Tashkent to cement their cooperation in oil and natural gas, education, culture and fight against terrorism. Chinese President Hu Jintao, who is on a state visit to the Central Asian nation, signed a joint statement with Uzbek President Islam Abduganiyevich Karimov to set up the framework of cooperation. The two sides pledged in the statement to deepen their "friendly and cooperative partnership relations". China's leading oil and natural gas company, Sinopec, signed a "mutually beneficial cooperation agreement" with Uzbekistan's national oil and natural gas company. But details of the agreement were not made public. Education ministries of the two countries signed an agreement that allows the two sides to jointly establish a Confucius institute in Tashkent. Other accords signed by the two countries covered cooperation in the fields of anti-drug combat, justice, trade and cultural exchange. President Karimov said the cooperation between the two sides in areas of oil and gas, the chemical industry, electronics, telecommunications and transportation will "have broad prospects". China has decided to provide assistance and preferential loans to Uzbekistan, which will be "very important to Uzbek social and economic development", according to Karimov, but the specific sum was not revealed. ... Chinese President Hu described his talks with Karimov as "fruitful", which resulted in consensus on a wide range of issues. "The two sides agree that they share common interests and responsibility in maintaining regional stability and security, and will strengthen cooperation in the fight against terrorism, separatism and extremism within the framework of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization and multinational organizations," Hu said. Hu invited President Karimov to visit China and the latter accepted the invitation. ... (XNA, 15 June 04; RMRB, 16 June 04)

Zimbabwe (June 14)

Zimbabwe received China's Approved Destination Status with the signing of an MOU Agreement by Zimbabwe's Minister of Environment and Tourism Francis Nhema and Sun Gang, deputy director of the China National Tourism Administration. Nhema, who is leading a large tourism delegation to China, said ... a special tourism office was set up in the Zimbabwe embassy to China last August and Zimbabwe is also planning to open a direct air route to China. ... According to the minister, about 41,000 Asian tourists visited Zimbabwe last year, including 10,000 Chinese. Nhema said with the fast expansion of Asian tourism, the number of Asian tourists to Zimbabwe this year will be increased to 80,000, and those from China will reach 25,000. (XNA, 14 June 04)

PRC Laws and Regulations

Liu Jen-Kai

Law of the People's Republic of China on Promoting Agricultural Mechanization, approved at the 10th session of the 10th NPC Standing Committee on 25 June 2004. The law will come into effect on 1 November 2004. (Presidential Decree No. 16, signed by State President Hu Jintao on 25 June 2004) This law consists of eight chapters with 35 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 30 June 04)

"The law of the PRC for accelerating agricultural mechanization" has been examined and ratified at the 10th session of the 10th NPC and will officially go into effect starting on 1 November 2004. The issuance of this law will play an important role in encouraging and supporting farmers and organizations specializing in agricultural production and farm product trades to use advanced and practical farm machinery, in accelerating agricultural mechanization, in improving the productivity of the agricultural industry and in accelerating agricultural modernization. Farm machinery is an important material basis for, an important component of, and an important symbol for agricultural modernization. Farmers and organizations specializing in agricultural production and farm product trades are the mainstay of agricultural mechanization. Accelerating development in agricultural mechanization is not only an important measure for improving farmers' conditions for living and production and for improving the productivity of the agricultural industry but is also an important condition for narrowing down the disparity between urban areas and rural areas and for improving the overall level of agriculture and the rural economy. ... The 3rd plenary session of the 16th CCP CC noted: "The state should increase its support and protection over agriculture and financial administrations at all levels and increase investment in agricultural and rural areas." Document No 1 of the central authorities for 2004 regards improving the agricultural mechanization level as an important measure for accelerating the increase of farmers' income and sets forth a decision to provide governmental subsidies to farmers, farm employees, farmers specializing in farm machinery, and farm machinery service organizations that are directly involved in farm production when they buy new large farm machinery or devices. The law for accelerating agricultural mechanization affirmed these effective policies and measures by making them a law. ... (RMRB web site, 30 June 04, in BBC PF, 2 July 04)

Seismographic Management Regulations, approved at the 52nd executive meeting of the State Council on 4 June 2004. The regulations will come into force on 1 September 2004. (Decree No. 409 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 17 June 2004) (Full text: RMRB, 5 July 04)

Measures of the People's Republic of China for Implementing the Law on Protecting Rights and Interests of Returned Overseas Chinese and Their Dependents, approved at the 53rd executive meeting of the State Council on 4 June 2004. The measures will come into force on 1 July 2004. (Decree No. 410 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 23 June 2004) These measures consist of 30 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 30 June 04)

China is stepping up efforts to protect the legal rights of returned Overseas Chinese, as the central government has issued a regulation in this regard. The regulation orders that all local governments at the county level and above attach importance to the legal rights of returned Overseas Chinese and their relatives. "The local governments and related departments should help them settle down, according to relevant regulations of the nation," the regulation says. It requires that local governments give support to returned Overseas Chinese and their relatives if they invest in developing waste mountains, waste land, and beach land according to law, or if they take up agriculture, forestry, animal husbandry, and fishery activities. "The local governments and related departments should also give support to them when they set up public welfare undertakings, and their legal rights are protected by law," it says. The All-China Federation of Returned Overseas Chinese and local federations operate according to their own regulations to protect the legal rights of returned Overseas Chinese and their relatives, according to the regulation. "If their legal rights are infringed upon, they have the right to ask the related government departments to investigate in accordance with the law, or the right to go to court," it says. The old regulation in this regard, issued by the State Council on July 19, 1993, will be at the same time repealed when the new one takes effect. (XNA, 28 June 04)

Provisional Regulations on the Registration of Institutions. These regulations will go into effect on the day of promulgation. (Decree No. 411 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 27 June 2004) (Full text: RMRB, 7 July 04)

CPI (A), CPI(B) and CPI(C) are compiled based on the expenditure patterns of households in the relatively low, medium and relatively high expenditure ranges respectively. A Composite CPI is compiled based on the overall expenditure pattern of all the above households taken together. The CPI(C) was formerly known as the Hang Seng CPI and was compiled by the Hang Seng Bank since 1974. Starting from the reference month of July 1999, the data collection and compilation work of the index have been taken up by the Census and Statistics Department and the index has been renamed as CPI(C).
