Chairmen and vice-chairmen of autonomous regional governments are equivalent to governors and vice-governors of provinces and to mayors and vice-mayors of Beijing, Chongqing, Shanghai and Tianjin. Year and month behind a name indicate the date the person assumed the post or was identified in this position.

China Construction Bank (CCB) Limited was inaugurated on 21 September as a milestone in the development of the country's biggest property lender. The former wholly state-owned bank has been transformed into a joint-stock commercial bank controlled by the state. Its five stock-holders are Central Huijin Investment Co., Ltd., China Jianyin Investment Co., Ltd., State Grid Corporation, Shanghai Baosteel Group Company, and China Yangtze Power Co., Ltd.. The new CCB has an aggregate capital of 194.23 billion yuan (23. 4 billion US dollars), with a total of 194.23 billion shares. A spokesman of the bank said that CCB would be devoted to commercial banking business and built into a modern bank with adequate capital, stringent internal control, safe operation, sound service and international competitiveness in about three years. Zhang Enzhao, the former CCB president, became the new bank's chairman of the board of directors, while Chang Zhenming, a former senior executive of the China International Trust and Investment Corp. (CITIC), was appointed president of China Construction Bank Limited. (XNA, 21 Sep 04)

Newly Appointed Leaders

Chang Zhenming (1)

China Construction Bank (CCB) Limited was inaugurated on 21 September as a milestone in the development of the country's biggest property lender. The former wholly state-owned bank has been transformed into a joint-stock commercial bank controlled by the state. Its five stockholders are Central Huijin Investment Co., Ltd., China Jianyin Investment Co., Ltd., State Grid Corporation, Shanghai Baosteel Group Company, and China Yangtze Power Co., Ltd. The new CCB has an aggregate capital of 194.23b RMBY (23.4b US$), with a total of 194.23b shares. A spokesman of the bank said that CCB would be devoted to commercial banking business and built into a modern bank with adequate capital, stringent internal control, safe operation, sound service and international competitiveness in about three years. Zhang Enzhao, the former CCB president, became the new bank's chairman of the board of directors, while Chang Zhenming, a former senior executive of the China International Trust and Investment Corp. (CITIC), was appointed president of China Construction Bank Limited. (XNA, 21 Sep 04; RMRB, 22 Sep 04) Chang had served as vice-president of China CITIC Group since September 1995.

Chen Bingde,

commander of Jinan Military Region, became a member of the CCP Central Military Commission at the 4th plenary session of the 16th CCP CC, which concluded on 19 September. ### Leaders Removed from Office

Fu Xiaoguang

Vice-Governor of Heilongjiang Province.

China's northernmost province of Heilongjiang, a resource-rich area that has been plagued by labour and investment issues as well as social unrest, has removed five top officials from the rank of vice-governor for undisclosed reasons, state media reported on 11 October. The NPC Standing Committee of Heilongjiang on 10 October accepted the resignations of Vice-Governor Fu Xiaoguang, the head of the provincial Supreme People's Court and the province's top prosecutor, according to the Beijing News. The general secretary of the provincial Communist Party Committee and the vice-director of the Congress also resigned. State media indicated that the five might be moved to other positions but did not say why they had left their latest posts after serving for terms ranging from one to six years. The Congress also appointed two new vice-governors - career government official Li Zhanshu and former State Council commercial office deputy director Liu Xueliang. A provincial propaganda department staff member said on 11 October he did not know why the five officials quit. (Kyodo News Service, 11 Oct 04, in BBC PF, 12 Oct 04)

Jiang Zemin

Resigned from his post as chairman of the CCP Central Military Commission. (RMRB, 20 Sep 04)

The following is the text of Comrade Jiang Zemin's request to resign from the post of chairman of the Central Military Commission of the CCP:

The Political Bureau of the Central Committee,

I am writing to the Central Committee to offer my resignation from my present post as chairman of the Central Military Commission of the CCP. In the interest of the long-term peace and stability of the party and state, and for the sake of achieving the institutionalization, standardization and proceduralization of the succession of new high-ranking party and state leaders to the old, I informed the Central Committee of my desire to retire from my leadership positions in the Central Committee and to step down from the Central Committee before the 16th CCP National Congress. The Central Committee accepted with my request at that time. Meanwhile, bearing in mind the complicated and ever-changing international situation and the heavy tasks of national defence and army building, and proceeding from the interests of the whole, the Central Committee decided that I should retain the chairmanship of the Military Commission of the party and state. Since then, I have done my level best to carry out my duty as commissioned by the Central Committee and have always respected and supported the work of the central leadership collective. In the interest of the long-term development of the cause of the party and the people, I have been looking forward to my complete retirement from leadership positions.

Under the backdrop of a complicated and ever-changing international situation and arduous and formidable tasks of reform and development at home since the 16th CCP National Congress and the 1st plenary session of the CCP Central Committee, the central leadership collective with Comrade Hu Jintao as general secretary has forged ahead into the future by carrying forward the cause pioneered by our predecessors, advanced with the times, assiduously unfolded fruitful work, and achieved new results in advancing cause of the party and state in every respect, thus winning the support and trust of the broad masses of cadres and the people. Practice proves that the central leadership collective elected by the 16th CCP National Congress and the 1st plenary session of the 16th CCP Central Committee is capable of outstanding achievements and withstanding the tests of reform, opening up and the complicated situation. After careful consideration, I intend to resign from my present post, which is good for the development of the cause of the party, the state and the armed forces. I sincerely hope that the Central Committee would accept my request. I would also offer to the National People's Congress to resign as chairman of the Central Military Commission of the PRC.

Here, I solemnly propose to the Central Committee to make Comrade Hu Jintao chairman of the Central Military Commission of the CCP. Comrade Hu Jintao is completely qualified for the post, and this is good for upholding the fundamental principle and system of the party's absolute leadership over the army.

I have been educated by the party and worked for the party in the six decades since joining the revolution. I have always cherished deep feelings for the party and the people. The cause of the party and the people are my life. I will always be loyal to the cause of the party and the state, and will always be a loyal member of the party. The great cause led by our party has made great achievements of world attention through the protracted efforts of people of several generations, but the road forward is still very long and it is still possible that we will encounter risks and tests of that or that sort. I am convinced that our party's cause is bound to triumph. As long as we stick to our ideal and strengthen our conviction, seize the opportunity and quietly immerse ourselves in hard work, continuously consolidate and develop the unity of the entire party and the unity between the party and the people, continuously overcome all possible challenges, continuously enhance our country's economic and national defence strength and our nation's rallying force, our party, our state and our armed forces will definitely be able to advance from victory to victory, and the Chinese nation will definitely be able to achieve its great rejuvenation.

Hong Kong

Hong Kong Chief Executive Tung Chee Hwa announced on 8 October that Dr. York Chow (Zhou Yiyue) was appointed as new secretary for Health, Welfare and Food to replace Yeoh Eng-kiong. (XNA, 8 Oct 04; RMRB, 9 Oct 04))

Laura Cha (Shi Meilun), the former vice-chairman of China's Securities Regulatory Commission, and Legislative Council member Bernard Chan, who represents the insurance functional constituency, have been named non-official members of the Executive Council of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR). Introducing the two at a press conference on 12 October, HKSAR Chief Executive Tung Chee-hwa said Laura has a legal background and she has worked for a long time in the finance and securities sector, both in Hong Kong and in the Central Government's security and regulatory bodies. "She has a good knowledge of the industry, not just local, but regionally and internationally. With her wealth of knowledge, I'm quite sure she will be a valuable addition," Tung said. Before accepting the mainland post which she held for three years, Cha had served as the Executive Director of the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (SFC). In the early to mid-1980s, she practised law in the United States, and returned to Hong Kong in 1985. She took up her first post with the SFC in 1991. "We want to maintain Hong Kong as a leading financial centre and I'm sure she will be able to help there," Tung said. Tung noted that Chan was totally dedicated to his work in Legislative Council (Legco), and has made tremendous contributions to the insurance sector. He pointed to his work on various bodies, including his chairmanship of the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service and of The Hong Kong Council of Social Service. Chan's valuable business and social welfare contacts would enable him to bring fresh perspectives to the Executive Council (Exco), Tung said. Under the Basic Law of HKSAR, the Exco is an organ for assisting the Chief Executive in policy-making. Article 55 of the Basic Law stipulates that the Chief Executive shall appoint members of the Exco from among the principal officials of the executive authorities, members of the Legislative Council and public figures. Members' appointment or removal is decided by the Chief Executive. Exco members hold office for a period no longer than the expiry of the term of office of the Chief Executive who appoints them. ## Austria (Sep 01)

A cooperation agreement between the All-China Federation of Industry and Commerce and the Austria Federal Economic Chamber was signed in Vienna to further enhance bilateral trade activities between the two countries. Vice-Chairman of the All-China Federation of Industry and Commerce (ACFIC), Wang Yiming, and Vice-President of the Austria Federal Economic Chamber, Richard Schenz, signed the economic agreement. The cooperation agreement was signed on the sideline of a visit to Austria by Jia Qinglin, chairman of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC). Jia and President of Austria's Federal Council Anna Elisabeth Haselbach attended the signing ceremony. The agreement was aimed at strengthening friendly cooperative relations and promotion of economic and trade ties between the industrial and commercial circles of China and Austria.

The agreement stipulates as follows:

- Both parties will promote bilateral cooperation through specific exchange activities;
- Both parties agree to maintain regular contacts, exchange economic and trade information and their experiences in areas of membership development and training, and provide service for their members;
- Both parties would encourage their members to increase contact by various means and explore the possibility for economic cooperation and create conditions for fulfillment of their goals;
- Both parties will organize bilateral cooperation under the support of the relevant government departments through organization of industrial and commercial training and seminars, holding economic and trade talks as well as commodities fairs, etc.;
- ACFIC and the Austria Federal Economic Chamber would like to develop long-term, friendly and fruitful cooperative relations through the above activities. (XNA, 1 Sep 04)

Brazil (Sep 06)

Brazil and China signed in Beijing two more memoranda of understanding that could mark the definite arrival of the Chinese as great investors or financial agents in Brazilian electricity infrastructure projects. One of the memoranda, which was signed between Eletrobras [Brazilian Electric Power Company, SA] and China International Trust and Investment Corporation (CITIC), could mark the presence of the Chinese in energy generation in the North and South regions, as well as in future bids for electricity grids in Brazil. Another memorandum involving Petrobras [Brazilian Petroleum Corporation], the National Economic and Social Development

Bank (BNDES), the China Petrochemical Corporation (Sinopec [SINOPEC]) and the Import and Export Bank of China (China Eximbank) opens the door to an up to 1.17bn-dollar financing of two stretches of the gas pipeline connecting the Southeast and Northeast regions by January 2007. The timetable stipulated in this memorandum establishes short-term decisions. The financing contract terms should be signed by the end of the year. The next phase - beginning of construction work - is foreseen for July 2005. Mines and Energy Minister Dilma Rousseff announced the signature of the memoranda of understanding in the Brazilian embassy. The memoranda will allow the development of joint studies for the implementation of energy generation and transmission projects in Brazil. ... ## Germany (Sep 15)

Shanghai, China's economic and financial hub, will carry out all-round cooperation with Germany's Hamburg, covering traditional Chinese medicine, tourism, education, art, music, sports and urban construction. Shanghai Mayor Han Zheng and Hamburg Mayor Ole Von Beust signed a package of agreements on such cooperation in Shanghai on 15 September. According to the agreements, Hamburg will build a research institute on Chinese herb and traditional medicine, as well as a herb plantation with the help of Shanghai. The two cities will also enhance cooperation in public health and prevention and treatment of contagious diseases. According to the pacts, China and Germany will jointly establish a surgery training center, carry out exchange and training programs on disaster relief, elder nursing and psychotherapy. On tourism, Shanghai will build a Chinese-style teahouse in the downtown of Hamburg as the European headquarters of Shanghai-based tourist agencies. The two cities will strive to realize direct flights at an early date as well. The other cooperation fields involve youth training, linguistic teachers exchange and other facets in art exhibition, rock-and-roll concert, chess and soccer games. They also cooperate in urban construction and port management. Those all-round cooperation revealed a particular relationship between Hamburg and Shanghai, Beust said. (XNA, 16 Sep 04)

Mexico (Sep 09)

Chinese and Mexican commerce departments signed an agreement in Xiamen on setting up a high-level workgroup to facilitate trade and investment. The workgroup, composed of officials from both governments, is responsible for evaluating and analyzing trade and investment development situations, making proposals and exploring and seeking ways to enhance bilateral cooperation. The group will convene once per year. Prior to the signing ceremony with Mexican Secretary of Economy Fernando Canales, Chinese Minister of Commerce Bo Xilai said the establishment of the workgroup would help tackle the problems emerging from trade between China and Mexico. China and Mexico enjoy extensive cooperation in trade and investment, said Bo, adding that the two countries should further promote trade cooperation in energy and mineral products. Canales said trade between Mexico and China recorded rapid growth in the first five months of this year, with up 50 percent from the same period last year. The two countries should work together to develop a cooperative trade strategy, he said. Despite differing views inside Mexico on whether to end textile quotas on January 1, 2005, the Mexican government will keep its promises and make efforts to liberalize textile trade, Canales said. Canales is here for the Eighth China International Fair for Investment and Trade (CIFIT), which opened on 8 September in Xiamen, a coastal city of east China's Fujian Province. ... (XNA, 9 Sep 04)

Vietnam (Sep 03)

A document on cooperation in building and developing an economic corridor between four Vietnamese cities and provinces and China's Yunnan province was signed in Hanoi. The Vietnamese partners include Hanoi, Hai Phong, Quang Ninh, and Lao Cai. At a meeting in Hanoi on 3 September, the two sides discussed cooperation to develop bilateral trade, fight trade frauds, prohibited and fraudulent goods, build trade centres and super markets as well as international tourist routes. They also discussed how to improve the transport services on roads and railways linking Yunnan-Lao Cai-Hanoi-Hai Phong, and how to increase information exchanges and investment promotion. Leaders of the relevant provinces and cities agreed to simplify the import-export procedures and create good conditions for their residents to travel. They will ask their governments to permit trucks from Vietnam and Yunnan Province to carry goods through the economic corridor. For fast and accurate payment among businesses, it is proposed to use LCs and local currencies in payment. Addressing the conference, Permanent Deputy Prime Minister Nguyen Tan Dung said economic and trade cooperation through economic corridors should be developed, paving the way for multilateral cooperation among Vietnam, China and other regional countries. #### Hong Kong SAR Agreement with the Mainland (Sep 08)

The latest review of the Mainland - HKSAR Air Services Arrangement was concluded in Hong Kong on 8 September, providing a clear timetable for opening the Hong Kong-Mainland aviation market to more airlines and for expansion of capacity limits on individual routes. Since the arrangement was signed in 2000, annual reviews were conducted to address market needs. Compared to previous exercises, the latest review covered a much wider spectrum of issues and achieved substantial progress on various fronts. Hong Kong's Secretary for Economic Development and Labor Stephen Ip said that a liberal arrangement is crucial for enhancing the competitiveness of the Hong Kong International Airport, and for strengthening Hong Kong's status as an international and regional aviation center. In the face of increasing competition from airports in the region, the HK-SAR government must firmly and actively implement its progressive liberalization policy on air services, Ip said. The limit on the total number of airlines allowed to participate in the mainland market will be lifted immediately, while the number of routes that allow "dual designation" by each side will be increased in phases, eventually covering all routes by winter 2006. Passenger and cargo capacities between the two places will be substantially increased. .... In addition, from October 2006, a second Hong Kong airline will be allowed to operate passenger service on the Shanghai route. These new rights provide valuable business opportunities to our airlines that have plans to launch services or increase their existing services on the respective routes. The arrangement currently provides for a wide route network covering a total of 44 destinations in the mainland. A new route, Lijiang, has been included in the new arrangement. ... (XNA, 8 Sep 04)

Macau SAR Agreement with the Hong Kong SAR (Sep 06)

Hong Kong and Macau officials signed in Hong Kong a Memorandum on "Enhanced Travel Convenience for Macau Residents Travelling to Hong Kong Arrangements." Director of Hong Kong Immigration Lai Tung-kwok and Director of the Identification Department of the Macau government Isaac Lai Ieng-kit signed the document. The measures for the enhanced travel convenience include the following: eligible Macau permanent residents may visit Hong Kong by producing their Macau Smart Permanent Identity Card together with a specified declaration form and they may stay for a maximum of 14 days; Macau residents of Chinese or Portuguese nationality who have held Macau identity cards for less than two years may visit Hong Kong by using a Visit Permit for Residents of Macau to HKSAR and stay for a maximum of 14 days, just like Macau residents of Chinese or Portuguese nationality who have held Macau identity cards for two years or longer; and Macau Travel Permit holders who have held Macau identity cards for less than two years may transit in Hong Kong for a maximum of seven days without the need to apply for a separate entry permit, just like travel permit holders who have held Macau identity cards for two years or longer. The first measure will be introduced in mid-October this year while the other two measures will be effective late this month. Lai Tung-kwok said at the ceremony that when the new arrangements come into effect, Macau permanent residents would be able to visit Hong Kong by producing their Macau Smart Permanent Identity Cards together with the declaration form, without the need to hold other travel documents. "This is a great move in the immigration arrangements between the Hong Kong SAR and Macau SAR to enhance travel convenience for the citizens," he said. A Hong Kong Immigration spokesman said he expected Macau residents would welcome the new entry arrangements. "The number of Macau visitors may increase as a result, hence benefiting tourism and related industries. Immigration integrity and security will not be compromised under the new arrangements," he said. (XNA, 6 Sep 04)

... Macau's Lai said the signing of the memorandum signified a new era of exchange and cooperation between the two regions. He said that as well as enhancing travel convenience, it would also promote development in a number of ways. He added that a total of 450,000 Macau residents, or 93.7 per cent of the population, would benefit from the arrangements, including 440,000 Macau permanent residents who may visit Hong Kong by producing their Macau Smart Permanent Identity Card and 10,000 Macau residents who have been exempted from the requirement to hold Macau identity cards for at least two years before being allowed entry to Hong Kong. (XNA, 6 Sep 04)

Macau SAR and Hong Kong SAR signed a memorandum on easier entry regulations for Macau SAR residents. According to the memorandum, permanent residents of Macau SAR who have the Electronic Macau SAR Permanent Resident Identity Card (with computer chips included) may enter Hong Kong SAR with their resident identity Card and a special declaration form. The new regulations do not extend to those who need a traveling visa to enter Hong Kong currently, including nationals of 41 countries and holders of certain traveling documents. However, they may enjoy visa-free entry to Hong Kong by applying to a special verification arrangement, if they agreed to have the Macau SAR Identity Bureau submitting their personal information to the Hong Kong SAR Immigration Department. There are currently 435 Macau SAR permanent residents who need visa to enter Hong Kong; they will be contacted by the identification Department individually for their willingness to do so. The new regulations also include a lift of the ban on non permanent Macau residents who obtained their identity card for less than two years to apply for the Visit Permit to HK SAR. The new regulations were scheduled to be in effect from 18 October. The Special declaration form can be obtained through Self-Service Kiosk at the Macau Ferry Terminal and the Macau Identification Bureau. Currently, the number of Electronic Macau SAR Permanent Resident Identity Card holder is approximately 124,000. DSI will start the mass replacement process by the end of this year. Consequently, when travelling to Hong Kong. Furthermore, once the replacement process finishes in early 2007, the number of individuals involved will increase to 440,000. Regulations on National Economic Survey. These regulations will go into effect on the day of promulgation. (Decree No. 415 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 5 September 2004) The regulations consist of eight chapters with 38 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 13 Sep 04)

The Chinese government recently issued and put into force a set of regulations on national economic survey, the first of which will be conducted at the end of this year. According to the regulations, endorsed by Chinese Premier Wen Jiabao, the goal of economic survey is to grasp the comprehensive situation of the scale, structure and economic results of China's secondary and tertiary industries, build and improve the list and a databank of the basic units in these areas to serve the making of economic and social development plans. The survey covers all legal person units, industrial units and individually-run businesses in China. It will be conducted every five years on 31 December of the survey year, according to the regulations. An official with the leading group on economic survey under the State Council said China's first national economic survey will be held on 31 December of this year. After that, national economic surveys will be held on years ending with the number "three" and "eight". The regulations order targets of economic survey to honestly and timely fill up economic survey forms. Survey workers are required to strictly keep information obtained in the survey confidential. According to the regulations, statistics about organizations and individuals obtained in the survey are strictly for the purpose of economic survey only. They won't be used by any parties as evidence in the punishing wrong acts. (XNA, 12 Sep 04)

Regulations of the People's Republic of China on Origin of Import and Export Commodities, adopted at the State Council's 61st executive meeting on 18 August 2004. These regulations will come into force on 1 January 2005. (Decree No. 416 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 3 September 2004) The regulations consist of 27 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 27 Sep 04)

Regulations on Management of Highway Toll Fee Collection, adopted at the State Council's 61st executive meeting on 18 August 2004. These regulations will come into force on 1 November 2004. (Decree No. 417 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 13 September 2004) The regulations consist of six chapters with 60 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 27 Sep 04)

Statute on Defence Patents. (Decree No. 418 of the PRC State Council and the PRC Central Military Commission, signed by Wen Jiabao, Premier of the State Council, and Jiang Zemin, Chairman of the Central Military Commission, on 17 September 2004) This statute, which consists of five chapters with 36 articles, will come into force with effect from 1 November 2004. (RMRB, 10 Oct 04) China published a newly-written statute on patents for defence-related technology on 9 October, as part of the governments commitment to step up protection of intellectual rights in this field. The new Statute on Defence Patents was jointly signed by Premier Wen Jiabao and Chairman of the Central Military Commission of the People's Republic of China Jiang Zemin on 17 September. The new provisions will go into force on 1 November, replacing the existing Statute on Defence Patents, enacted on 30 July, 1990. The new statute includes five articles and 36 clauses covering all issues involving the application, examination and approval of defence patents. One of the main differences in the new law is that special agencies will now be designated to help with the application for defence-related patents. (XNA, 9 Oct 04)

Regulations on Implementing the Administrative Supervision Law of the People's Republic of China, adopted at the State Council's 63rd executive meeting on 6 September 2004. These regulations will come into force on 1 October 2004. (Decree No. 419 of the State Council, signed by Premier Wen Jiabao on 17 September 2004) The regulations consist of five chapters with 44 articles. (Full text: RMRB, 30 Sep 04)

Note: CPI (A), CPI(B) and CPI(C) are compiled based on the expenditure patterns of households in the relatively low, medium and relatively high expenditure ranges respectively. A Composite CPI is compiled based on the overall expenditure pattern of all the above households taken together. The CPI(C) was formerly known as the Hang Seng CPI and was compiled by the Hang Seng Bank since 1974. Starting from the reference month of July 1999, the data collection and compilation work of the index have been taken up by the Census and Statistics Department and the index has been renamed as CPI(C).
