China's Economic Aid

JUNE 1976

AFGHANISTAN

Construction of a regional general hospital in Kandahar, with Chinese assistance, began on June 26, 1976 (NCNA June 27, 1976).

ALBANIA

The urea plant in Fieri district was completed and turned out its first batch of chemical fertilizers on June 10 (NCNA June 17, 1976).

COMOROS

An agreement on economic and technical cooperation between China and Comoros was signed on June 10 (NCNA June 10, 1976).

EQUATORIAL GUINEA

The first contingent of medical workers graduated from a training course in Bata, capital of Rio Muni province, on June 10, 1976. The training course was started in 1973 with the help of a Chinese medical team working in the country. Through two and a half years' study and clinical practice, the students have mastered the knowledge of various medical departments and diagnosis and treatment of common and recurrent diseases (NCNA June 13, 1976).

MALI

The Siribala sugar refinery, put into operation on a trial basis last April, has now an estimated capacity of 15,000 tons of sugar a year (NCNA June 14, 1976).

NEPAL

In Hetauda, a city to the southwest of Kathmandu, the construction of a cotton printing and dyeing mill is in full swing. Construction started at the end of last year (NCNA June 1, 1976).

PAKISTAN

A multi-million rupee multi-purpose cultural complex is to be added to the Chinese-aided sports complex now under construction in Islamabad (Karachi Radio, June 2, 1976, cit. SWB/W 881).

SOMALIA

Work on 360 kilometres of the 970 km Belet Wen-Burao road has been completed. On completion of the whole length, this road will connect southern Somalia with the northern part of that country (NCNA June 1, 1976).

SOUTH YEMEN. (see YEMEN, PDR)

TANZANIA

The Ubungo farm tool factory which started operation in 1969 has since steadily increased its production. It turned out more than 400,000 hoes and other small farm implements in 1975 alone. By tapping production potentials, the factory has also produced brick-making machines, maize and ground-nut shellers, various kinds of knives, and other small metal tools (NCNA June 24, 1976).

UPPER VOLTA

The first Chinese medical team arrived in Upper Volta on June 25, 1976 (NCNA June 29, 1976).

VIETNAM, DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC

The Ministry of Light Industry held a ceremony on June 5 to mark the completion of the (Phu An) trade labels printing plant in Vinh Phu Province. Built with Chinese aid, this is Vietnam's first plant for printing trade labels. Its annual capacity is 1,000 tons of paper and it can print trade labels in eight colours (Hanoi Radio, June 7, 1976; cit. SWB/W 882).

The Ninh Binh thermal power plant, a Chinese-aided project, has been completed, and was put into operation recently. It is one of the biggest of its kind in North Vietnam, covering a total built-up area of 26,000 square metres. Its generating capacity is 100,000 kilowatt. All the equipment and essential materials were supplied, free of charge, by China. The project was started in April 1971, and suspended during the period between May 1972 and March 1973 as a result of the US air raids. Construction was resumed in September 1973. The four power-generating units were put into operation in May and December 1974, November 1975, and March 1976 respectively (NCNA Jun 16, 76).

YEMEN, PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC (South)

On June 20 the inauguration and delivery of the Aden farm tool and hardware factory took place. The construction of the factory started in January 1975. It has workshops for wire-drawing, galvanizing, electro-plating, polishing, forging and pressing, machine repairs and heat treatment. It can produce wires, galvanized wires, hoes, sickles, pick-axes, knives, and scissors (NCNA June 20, 1976).

The expansion project of the Aden salt works was completed on June 19. There is now a mechanized-operation equipment, as well as a crushing and machine-repairing workshop. Work on the expansion project had started in October 1973 (NCNA June 19, 1976).

LOU HSDEN-CHENG

Identified as vice-chairman of the Actual Revolutionary Committee and member of the Standing Committee of that Province's CCP (Hanoi Radio, June 9, 1976).
