

Table of Contents

Editorial

Carmen Brandt, Maria Framke 1-2

Article

Honour Matters: Social Group-Based Narratives as Sources for the Study of Situated Honour Practices and Their Sets of Emotions in Early Modern Tamil-Speaking South India
Barbara Schuler 3-55

Essay

Zwischen gesellschaftlichen Umbrüchen und dem Festhalten am vermeintlichen Status Quo: Die Satire Puruṣ-ratna von Jogendra Chandra Basu
Nora Warmer 56-82

Thematic Focus:

Negotiating Religion in South Asian-European Entanglements, edited by Rinku Lamba and Isabella Schwaderer

Introduction: Negotiating Religion in South Asian-European Entanglements
Isabella Schwaderer 83-90

From Theology to Culture: Secularisation in Lajpat Rai's 'Hindu Nationalism', 1880s–1915
Vanya Vaidehi Bhargav 91-127

Engaging Bhakti as/in Translation: An Outline of a Methodological Approach to Analyse Ranade’s Views about the “Saints and Prophets of Maharashtra” Rinku Lamba	128-160
Enlightened Religion? On Buddhism in Karl Gjellerup’s novel Die Weltwanderer (The Wanderers of the World, 1910) Isabella Schwaderer	161-192
The Theosophical Reception of Buddhism Ulrich Harlass	193-233
Religious Criticism, Public Reason and Affect in the Reformist Age: Early Arya Samaj and the Religious Controversies Mohinder Singh	234-261
Contributors	262-263